The schedule has been set for the North Carolina High School Athletic Association's state football championships next month.

The eight championships will once again be held at three locations, including Kenan Stadium in Chapel Hill, Carter-Finley Stadium in Raleigh, and BB&T Field in Winston-Salem. One game will be played on Friday night, December 13, with the remaining seven scheduled for Saturday, December 14.

The 2-A classifications will play their games at Kenan Stadium, with the 2-AA final on Friday night at 7:30 pm and the 2-A game set for Saturday morning at eleven o'clock.

Carter-Finley will host the 4-A class and one of the 3-A championships. The 3-A title game will be the first of the tripleheader, on Saturday at 11 am, followed by the 4-A game at 3 p.m. and the 4-AA at 7 p.m.

At BB&T Field, the 1-A game is scheduled for 11 am, followed by the 1-AA championship at 3 p.m. and the 3-AA final at 7 p.m.
