Frank Ledezma of the Ashe County High boy's soccer team has been named the Mountain Valley 1A/2A Conference Player of the Year. Ledezma, who scored 101 goals (a school record) in his brilliant career, led the Huskies to their second straight MVC 1A/2a championship.

Ledezma, was also named the Region 9 Player of the Year by the North Carolina Soccer Coaches Association.

Ledezma is second Ashe County player to be named Player of the Year in the MVC. Junior Miguel Ramos won the award after last season.

Joining Ledezma on the all-conference and all-region team were fullback Alexis Ramos and striker Cesar Ruiz. Miguel Ramos and senior Jamie Weaver were also named to the MVAC All-Conference list. Victor Melo and senior Bryam Reyes were named to the honorable mention list.
