The Lenoir-Rhyne Women's Basketball Team (5-2, 2-2) snapped a two-game losing streak with a 67-48 win over Brevard (2-4, 1-3) Wednesday night in a South Atlantic Conference game at Boshamer

Gymnasium.

L-R junior guard Jenni Gust (Colfax, Wis.) finished with a game-high 19 points and was one of three players to score in double figures for the Bears in the victory.

Lenoir-Rhyne junior guard Jazmine Charles (Lexington, N.C.) added 15 points as the Bears held a 40-23 advantage on the boards and limited the Tornados to just 34 percent shooting (18-of-53) in the triumph.

Brevard's Shelby Wolfe (Pittsboro, N.C.) scored a team-high 10 points but was the lone player to score in double figures for the Tornados.
