Lenoir-Rhyne has announced several activities in show of support leading up to the 2013 NCAA Division II National Football Championship on Saturday.

A pregame celebration is scheduled for Friday from 5:30 p.m., to 7:00 p.m., at the Jameson Inn Lobby in Sheffield, Alabama.

A live radio broadcast with Kicks 103.3 FM (Lenoir, N.C.), the official radio station of Lenoir-Rhyne Athletics, will take place and L-R Head Football Coach Mike Houston is scheduled to make an appearance.

Davy Crockett, the voice of the Bears, will be a mid-day guest on AM 1450, WATA in Boone, N.C. Friday at 11:30 a.m.

Light Hors d'oeuvres will be served with non-alcoholic beverages and a cash bar will be available.

A tailgate party is scheduled for Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m., at Spirit Hill located on the west side of Braly Municipal Stadium.

Complimentary coffee, juice, water and pastries (while supplies last), sponsored by the Lenoir-Rhyne University Alumni Association, will be available to all Bears' fans prior to the game. Souvenir rally towels will be handed out during the tailgate (while supplies last). The cheerleaders will be on hand to help us welcome the team into the stadium with a Champions Walk at 9:00 a.m.

All three events are free and open to the public. Lenoir-Rhyne (13-1) faces Northwest Missouri State (14-0) for the title on Saturday at Noon. The game will also be shown on ESPN2.
