

L-R Takes Two On Final Day Of Catawba Invite

Written by Staff Reports
Monday, 24 February 2014 07:31

The Lenoir-Rhyne Softball Team improved to 9-3 on the season after defeating Pfeiffer (6-1) and Belmont Abbey (4-1) Sunday on the final day of the Catawba Invitational at Salisbury Community Park.

Lenoir-Rhyne 6, Pfeiffer 1

Freshman outfielder Ashley Oliver (Newton, N.C.) and freshman first baseman Sydney Landreth (Disputanta, Va.) each hit a home run to lead the Bears to the win.

Oliver's home run, a two-run shot, was part of a three-run first inning for Lenoir-Rhyne while Landreth hit a home run for the third consecutive game.

L-R sophomore Brandi Hole (Sandy Ridge, N.C.) improved to 5-1 on the year after limiting Pfeiffer to just one run on two hits. Freshman catcher Sarah Kenley (Charlotte, N.C.) also drove in a pair of runs for the Bears.

For the Falcons, Jaclyn Boever (Bostic, N.C.) hit a home run but Kaitlin Macmillan (Westbrook, Conn.) (0-1) suffered the loss on the mound.

L-R Takes Two On Final Day Of Catawba Invite

Written by Staff Reports
Monday, 24 February 2014 07:31

Lenoir-Rhyne 4, Belmont Abbey 1

Senior third baseman Haily Jarman (Wadesboro, N.C.) hit a two-run home run and sophomore Maryann Hoskins (Havelock, N.C.) limited the Crusaders to just two hits in the win.

Hoskins improved to 3-2 on the year after going the distance and striking out seven batters on the day.

Jarman's home run came in the sixth inning and was part of a four-run frame as the Bears rallied from a 1-0 deficit. Senior second baseman Ciera Cockerham (Yadkinville, N.C.) hit a two-run single in the inning as well for the Bears.

Belmont Abbey's Catelyn Presley (Charlotte, N.C.) took the loss on the mound and the Crusaders lost their third straight game.

L-R Takes Two On Final Day Of Catawba Invite

Written by Staff Reports

Monday, 24 February 2014 07:31

Lenoir-Rhyne returns home to host Lees-McRae in a doubleheader on Wednesday afternoon beginning at 2:00 p.m., at Bears Field.

Photo Courtesy: Haily Jarman, L-R Athletics