The Southern Conference has announced the pairings for the 2014 Women's Basketball Tournament, slated to begin Friday (March 7) in Asheville, N.C., at Kimmell Arena on the campus of UNC-Asheville.

The tournament will begin when eighth-seeded Georgia Southern faces No. 9 Wofford at 11:00 a.m. as part of the league's annual Education Day program. That game will be followed by the seventh-seeded Western Carolina Catamounts taking on No. 10 UNCG.

Chattanooga captured the No. 1 overall seed and earned a bye to Saturday's quarterfinals. The Mocs will face the Georgia Southern-Wofford winner at noon. The second quarterfinal is between the No. 4 seeded Appalachian State Mountaineers and No. 5 Elon.

Furman (2) earned the final bye into the quarterfinals. The Paladins will play Saturday at 4:30 p.m. against either Western Carolina or UNCG. Third-seeded Davidson will face No. 6 Samford in the last quarterfinal matchup at 8:30 p.m.
