The Watauga High girls' soccer team didn't waste any time putting Wilkes Central out its misery Tuesday night at the Freedom Tournament in Morganton, N.C.

The Pioneers erupted for three goals in the first five minutes of the game and downed the Eagles 3-0. Tori Derrick, who leads the Pioneers with a pair of goals in the early season, led the charge Tuesday night with a goal and an assist.

Kassandra Alvarez and Kat Welsh scored the other WHS goals. Brynne Gould and Tristin Derrick each had an assist. The Pioneers play McDowell tonight in Morganton at 7 p.m.

The WHS junior varsity team defeated Wilkes Central, 5-0.
