

LMC Track & Field Concludes Action at Winthrop Invitational.... Lees-McRae senior duo Persephanie McRae and Kortnie Curry tied for eighth in the women's high jump, highlighting LMC's weekend at the Winthrop Invitational in Rock Hill, S.C.

Coach Ley Fletcher played his cards safely while the weather left the track soaked and in less-than-satisfactory conditions.

McRae (Brooklyn, N.Y.) continued her impressive senior slate while Curry (Lexington, N.C.) cleared 1.50 meters in the women's high jump to claim a tie for eighth place in a Division I-heavy field.

Freshmen Colby Shell (Ferguson, N.C.) and Brenden Sherrill (Conover, N.C.) earned top-15 finishes in the men's 5,000-meter run while Shell swiped 13th with a time of 17:16.48. Sherrill earned 14th while finishing just a tick over two seconds behind Shell with a time of 17:18.54.

Senior Randy Ramirez (Guaynabo, Puerto Rico) continued his impressive final year as a Bobcat with a 27-assist performance while senior teammate Efrain Negrón (Caguas, Puerto Rico) recorded a match-high eight digs.

Following a five-set thriller on Valentine's Day, both teams played a see-saw first set while neither squad led by more than two.

John Soble (Holbrook, N.Y.) made the most of his rare start with a pair of kills, putting LMC up 8-7.

Markle and Ramirez delivered a kill each to keep the Bobcats out front, 18-17.

The Falcons responded with a quick 3-0 spurt following two LMC attack errors to take a 20-18 lead.

Senior Kevin Morrison (Norfolk, Va.) rose to the occasion with two block assists on consecutive
