It took a bit, but the Watauga High boys' lacrosse team finally cracked the win column by knocking off Morganton-Patton 15-4 Monday night on the road.

Ben Henson led the charge with four goals; Canyon Mueller chipped in with three, Jake Williams and Zach Williams each had two goals apiece. Dylan Arbogast, Bryce Wallace, Zach Tomer and Josh Horine each had a goal.

Goalkeeper Andrew Stratton made 13 saves.

"It means a lot to have these guys put in all the work," said WHS coach Brett Green, who picked up his first career win. "They finally saw all that hard work pay off. It's awesome."

The Pioneers travel to St. Stephens Friday.
