The Ashe County High boys' golf team turned in a fifth-place finish at the Mountain Valley 1A/2A Conference championships at the Mountain Aire Golf Course in West Jefferson, N.C.

Alleghany bested the field with a team score of 164; Wilkes Central finished in second place, three shots back, at 167. The Huskies were fifth with a team score of 183.

Josiah Blevins of Elkin was the MVC champion as he fired an even-par 36. Dylan Wooten of Alleghany finished two shots back with a two-over par 38; Zach Caudill of Wilkes Central finished third with a 39.

Abel Warner and Jacob Worley paced the Huskies. They both had an eight-over par 44 and finished eight shots off the lead. Caleb Carter had a 47; Ethan Warner had a 48.

The Huskies are scheduled to play a nine-hole match at Oakwoods Country Club Monday. North Wilkes will host. Ashe County will play in the "Old Mountain Mashe" hosted by Watauga at the Boone Golf Club Tuesday.
