

Baxter Wins Heat At Outdoor Nationals

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 23 May 2014 20:29

Lenoir-Rhyne University's Kevin Baxter placed first in his heat in the preliminaries of the men's 110-meter hurdles Friday at the 2014 NCAA Division II Outdoor Track and Field Championships and advanced to the finals at Grand Valley State Stadium.

Baxter, a sophomore from Columbia, S.C., finished with a 14.15 in the third of three heats. The finals, which features nine competitors, takes place on Saturday at 5:55 p.m.

Photo Courtesy: Kevin Baxter, L-R Athletics