The Mountain Valley 1A-2A Athletic Conference has released its all-conference team in softball. The Ashe County High softball team had three selections---one all-conference choice and two honorable mentions---on that list.

Hannah Blevins of the Huskies was named to the all-conference team; Sloan Elliott and Kelsey Hayes received honorable mention recognition. Elkin swept the conference's two top awards. Cayley Shoemaker was named MVAC Player of the Year; Billy Palmer of the Buckin' Elks was named the MVAC Coach of the Year.

East Wilkes led the way with seven all-conference selections (counting honorable mention selections); Elkin and West Wilkes had six selections apiece; Wilkes Central had five.
