Both Charlotte-Ardrey Kell and the Weddington girls advanced to the semi-finals of the North Carolina Powerade State Games High School Basketball Tournament Saturday.

The two local teams play each other at 9 a.m. on Court 1 at Carolina Courts in Indian Trail, N.C., Sunday morning. The other semi-final game will be between Morganton-Freedom and Scotland County.

The winners will play each other for the gold medal at 12 noon; the losers will play each other in the bronze-medal game.

On the boys' side, Raleigh-Millbrook and Fayetteville-71st will match up in one semi-final game; Voyager Academy will play North Rowan in the other.
