

Cameron Resigns as Women's Lacrosse Coach

Written by Chris Parker
Tuesday, 01 July 2014 16:32

Lees-McRae women's lacrosse head coach Ray Cameron has resigned effective immediately, announced Director of Athletics Craig McPhail.

“Ray came to us at time where we needed stability, leadership, and experience in building a program. He has elevated the program and established an identity for women's lacrosse at Lees-McRae College,” praised McPhail. “I am truly grateful for the opportunity to have worked for him and watched him create a wonderful atmosphere for our young women. He will continue to be an asset in and around our campus community.”

Cameron posted an 8-16 record during his two seasons at the helm while his squad earned consecutive Messick Sportsmanship Awards from Conference Carolinas.

Seven Bobcats were tabbed to the Conference Carolina All-Academic team while under the direction of Cameron and Jenah Tracy (Naples, Fla.) and Katelin Rooney (Naples, Fla.) were tabbed to the Conference Carolinas All-Conference Second-Team for their accolades in 2014.

Cameron Resigns as Women's Lacrosse Coach

Written by Chris Parker
Tuesday, 01 July 2014 16:32

LMC notched at least 15 goals in each of its wins last season.

The search for Cameron's replacement will begin immediately.