

Well-received artwork is on display at Wilkes County Library- but it's not what you think. It's the work of the residents of the Mountain House Assisted Living Facility.

On display are paintings, handmade and hand painted ceramics and sketches. The work is on display in the case on the lower level of the library. Mountain House representative Monica Nichols encouraged everyone to come out and support the residents and take in some unique art.