Tonight marks a relaxing cultural event in Blowing Rock: The Blowing Rock Thursday Gallery Stroll.

According to Charles Hardin, it makes for a nice evening. It's an opportunity to meet artists and experience local art, he says.

An estimated 8 galleries will be participating this evening in downtown Blowing Rock. Many will have snacks, Hardin says. The event happens every month, throughout the summer, on the Thursday before Art in the Park. Stroll from five to eight tonight for some really nice artwork.
