

Sign-ups Begin for the Third Annual High Country Spring Football Clinic

Written by Adam Hicks
Friday, 03 April 2009 09:27

Watauga Pioneer Football, Medallion Athletics, and the Broyhill Inn and Conference Center are teaming up to put on the third annual High Country Spring Football Clinic.

The clinic will be held on May 1 and 2 at the Broyhill Inn and Conference Center in Boone.

The clinic costs $50 to pre-register or $60 at the door.

Appalachian State's head football coach, Jerry Moore; West Forsyth High's head football coach, Adrian Snow; and Wofford College's defensive line coach, Jack Teachey, will be included in the list of speakers.

Interested residents can contact Watauga High's head football coach, Tim Pruit, at (336) 262-4708, or the Executive Director of Watauga County Parks and Recreation, Stephen Poulos, at (828) 719-8245, for more information.