

Avery man in custody under $35,000 bond

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Thursday, 21 June 2007 09:17

An update on a story we introduced yesterday- An Avery County man has been charged with 2nd degree rape and incest. The arrest occurred yesterday, but had been in the works for about a week, according to Avery County Sheriff's Office. That man, Scotty Johnson, is currently in custody under a $35,000 bond. Warrants had been drawn up for several days, and Johnson had been notified. Officers asked that Johnson turn himself in, but he was in South Carolina. Upon return, Johnson has been cooperative.