

Landlord jailed following dispute

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Tuesday, 26 June 2007 18:18

A landlord was jailed after a dispute over rent ended in alleged theft.

Deputies were called to a Millers Creek home in Wilkes County when Shelly Holliman and Richard Bryant returned home to find that their landlord, Terry Wayne Jennings, had allegedly carted $1,000 worth of video games and other assorted property, to the landfill. Other items missing include kids clothes, a microwave and dishes. Altogether, the two claimed their property was worth over $5,000. Jennings was charged with breaking and entering and theft after deputies examined the rental agreement and found that Holliman and Bryant had two days to pay their rent.