

Jewel thief strikes Wilkes

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Wednesday, 27 June 2007 18:34

Sometime between June 17 and last Friday, someone opened a window and entered the home of Samuel Wagner, stealing several pieces of jewelry.

After apparently lifting a portable DVD player from Wagner's vehicle, the alleged thief is believed to have stolen a seven-diamond cluster ring, a nugget bracelet and other pieces. The jewelry is valued at $5,000 according to Wagner.