

A Sugar Grove woman was injured Thursday morning in the crash of her SUV and a large Dually Truck hauling a utility trailer. The 10:30am crash occurred at the intersection of Bamboo and Wilson's Ridge Road, the state patrol saying that Judith F. Wright was pulling out of Wilson's Ridge, and did so into the path of the 2002 Ford truck, causing considerable damage to her 2006 Toyota Rav 4—and causing her injuries for which Watauga Medics transported her to Watauga Medical Center. Trooper Hendrix said the 61-year old was admitted to the hospital, and that he cited her with Failure to Yield in the crash.
