

Impromptu Drive-Through

Written by Steve Frank

Friday, 15 November 2013 12:28

The lunch crowd at Troy's Diner had a bit of a scare when a car crashed into the building. The silver Cadillac backed into both the side of a parked car and the left end window during the noon hour Friday. Watauga Medics were called as a precaution, but no one was injured, and Boone Police are investigating the incident.