Lenoir-Rhyne University's R.J. McClure has been named to the 2013-14 NCCSIA College Division All-State Men's Basketball First Team. NCCSIA is the North Carolina Collegiate Sports Information Association.

McClure, a senior guard from Canton, N.C., led the Bears in scoring (17.7 ppg) and three-pointers made (77) this year while being selected to the 2013-14 All-South Atlantic Conference Second Team.

McClure also set the single-game league record for points (52) and the single-game school record for three-pointers made (12) on January 15 against Newberry on the road.

Lenoir-Rhyne finished the year with a record of 16-11 including a 15-7 mark in conference play. The Bears tied for third in the league standings after being picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll.

Nominees were submitted by North Carolina sports information professionals and voted on by the NCCSIA members.
