

Huskies Conclude Golf Season

Written by Mike Kelly

Wednesday, 07 May 2014 14:00

The Ashe County High boys's golf team finished its season Tuesday at the NCHSAA Class 2A Midwest Regional in Salisbury. The Huskies had a team score of 361 and did not qualify for the state tournament.

South Stokes fired a 302 and won the regional championship. The Sauras advance to the Class 2A state championships at the Longleaf Golf & Country Club in Southern Pines, N.C., next Monday and Tuesday.

Salisbury and West Stokes will join South Stokes at the state championships. Salisbury finished second with a 306; West Stokes finished third with a 311.

Chandler Metz (Wilkes Central 2014 Mountain Valley Athletic Conference Golfer of the Year) advanced to the 2A state championship match as an individual, by shooting a 74. Alleghany advanced to 1a state championship match.

Huskies Conclude Golf Season

Written by Mike Kelly

Wednesday, 07 May 2014 14:00

Jacob Worley led the Huskies on Tuesday with 12-over-par 84; Abel Warner fired an 87, and Zach Lawrence had a 91.

We are going miss our seniors, Brandon Badger, Caleb Carter, Brandon Jones, Zach Lawrence and Ethan Warner," said Ashe County coach Laura Foster. "They were a huge part of our success this season."

Ashe Individual Results:

Jacob Worley 84

Abel Warner 87

Zach Lawrence 91

Ethan Warner 99

Caleb Carter 111

Huskies Conclude Golf Season

Written by Mike Kelly

Wednesday, 07 May 2014 14:00

Brandon Badger 118